

YOU'RE INVITED TO A SPECIAL EVENT!

Sponsored by the Jefferson Institute & the University of Missouri

Alternative Crop Field Day

Wednesday, August 21, 2002

Bradford Research & Extension Farm

Columbia, MO

8:45 a.m. registration & complimentary breakfast

9:00 a.m. program begins with a walking tour of alternative crop demonstration planting

10:00 a.m. wagon tour of alternative crop fields

11:00 a.m. tour will conclude

More than 20 crops will be toured including:

Sesame
Sunflowers
Amaranth
Pearl Millet
Nigerseed
Flax
Dry Edible Beans
Edamame Soybeans
Foxtail Millet
Cowpeas
Sunhemp
Kenaf
Buckwheat
Japanese Millet

Presentations Include:

- Grain and Oilseed Crop Options for Missouri Farmers, Rob Myers
- Legumes as an Alternative Crop for Missouri, James Quinn
- Economics and Opportunities for Value-Added Products, Alan Weber
- Options with Black Beans, Hay Beans and Forage Cowpeas, James Quinn
- Latest on Sunflower Herbicides, Bill Johnson
- Update on Sunflower Production & Marketing, Rob Myers
- Pearl Millet as an Alternative Grain, Shawn Conley

*Event will occur rain or shine. See the enclosed map for directions. Need more information?
Please contact the Jefferson Institute at 573.449.3518.*